Dear Sir/Madam

Seth Anandram Jaipuria School takes immense pleasure in extending a warm invitation to your school for fifth Inter School IT fiesta ‘Compufest 2012’ to be held on Friday, November 9, 2012.

2nd December 2006 marks the inception of Compufest at Seth Anandram Jaipuria School. It commenced with a focus on ‘gizmo-freak’, to sharpen their computing skills but keeping in mind the varied interests of children a new dimension has been given to this event by adding array of activities with emphasis on creativity, spontaneity, wit and innovative ideas of young minds.

The milieu of activities aims at guiding enthusiastic aspirants to display their competitive zest in the events like Fox Trot, Le Robian, Path Finder, Tickle the Ribs, Quizzard and many more.

Please find enclosed with this letter a copy of the programme for the event, as well as registration forms and all the relevant practical information. You are requested to send the names of the participants duly filled in the form through e-mail or post latest by Wednesday, 31st October. All information regarding Compufest 2012 is also available on the school website www.schooljaipuria.com.

Participants must reach the school and get themselves registered by 8:30 a.m. on the scheduled date.

Looking forward to your response and soliciting an enthusiastic participation.

Thanking You

Yours truly

Manju Rana
Principal
