ENGLISH

1. Children have you heard of an ‘Animan’? Yes, you guessed it right. An ‘Animan’ means Animal + man. Create your own ‘Animan’ by replacing human body parts with that of an animal. Paste the picture on an A-4 size sheet. Once you have done, write about this man and make him a hero in your own story (at the back side of the sheet).

2. Using pastel sheet make a booklet. Think of any five objects you see and make flash cards of each of them by pasting or drawing a colourful picture of the same followed by a set of five sentences about that object without using its name. (For example:

VOW

A Vow is a very important pledge.

Can you think of a pledge or vow that you might make? Write your own vow about something that is important to you on a placard. For example,

I will study regularly.
